Presidents Report

In the Chinese New Year it is "The Year of the Ox" (2009), well I believe it is the year of the Bull!

There has been lots happening since the end of the 2008 Season.

We have secured some fantastic new Sponsors and retained our wonderful Sponsors from last season.

Our 40th Season will be a great celebration of Old and New, we have our Season Launch Friday morning at the RSL to kick start the social Calender for the year, with our Ladies Lunch in Rnd 4 ( more details to follow), then the boys will step out in the New Look Jumpers against Pines on Saturday!!

The Committee would like to welcome all our new players, coaches, families and supporters to the Club, please speak to us if you have a problem and we will endeavour to help.

***Remember - Many hands make light work - if you can help out around the club speak up we would love to hear from you!

Go Bulls

Department Update

As most clubs would state, 'we have had a terrific pre-season' and we are certainly no different. A high level of enthusiasm, a positive vibe and genuine excitement for this season has underpinned our training thus far.

Our numbers to training have been excellent, which is a testament to our new fitness guru; Paul Bolton. His sessions from late Jan up until now have been varied, challenging and enjoyable. Our players have responded well to Paul's methods despite the not so flattering tights with no shorts look – always wear shorts Bolts.

We have been fortunate to have trained at Moorabbin on the Saints training ground at times throughout the pre-season, much to the delight of our players – thanks to Tim Hirst for organizing.

In early March we took a young squad of 20 to Wodonga for a 13 a side round robin which we performed quite well in. Our pace and tackling was a feature in all the games we played. The weather was quite hot and the round robin comp was a tough day which may explain why one of the boys became slightly disorientated during the night and struggled to find the toilet – DNA results have come back inconclusive as to who the culprit might be?

I have been impressed with the effort on the track and with the impact of our new recruits for 2009; Brendan Dunne (playing assistant coach), Rickey 'the chiz' Harley, Justin Farrelly, Kyle Docherty, Mathew Banfield, Sam Duffield and Fiddy Cent just to name a few.

Add the improvement still to come from our younger Bulls of Steve Charalambous, Rob Clement, Callan Dixon, Luke Adams and Rhys Quinn as well as a better year from myself, Luke Forsyth and Michael Burke etc

I expect the Bulls to have a real impact on this season with an exciting, hard & tough brand of football

Its now time to follow through on all the training and all the talk and take it out on Pines this Saturday – I look forward to seeing the Red & White Army in full force supporting the team

All the best to Brad Clark and the seconds and Daryl Dixon and the u/18's – both teams have shown they are ready to go

The Bulls in 2009 RUTHLESS UNITED HARD

● Last Word

- We'll start this years Last Word with a few last words about the infamous Wodonga trip.....

Casper Matthews – going up an extra night early, not to prepare for the match, but apparently to rendezvous with a young lady. Then instead of going out with the boys Saturday Night, he goes home and watches a DVD with her! Titanic I hear was the flick of choice!

And speaking of movie watchers, a special welcome to Sam Duffield! Picks up the best looking girl in Wodonga (about a 3.5 out of 10 by davey's standards), and takes her home to watch the Notebook. What a romantic!

Justin Farrelly – not known as a ladies man, but certainly gives himself every chance to succeed with the females. Faz was the first to get a Wodonga girls number on the trip, and this was 2 nights before we went up! How you ask? Faz's little secret – plentyoffish.com.au. Faz hit the internet dating site to do a little groundwork on the talent, or lack thereof! Welcome back big fella!

The Poo Bandit – this mystery must be solved. Who did the shit in the spa? We thought we got to the bottom of it with Pecko's confession, but apparently it wasn't him! He is still a suspect though. The list of suspects are Banny's, Big Faz, Pecko, Chisel, and Burnsy! CSI are currently closing in on the suspect!

- Everyone log on to Google and search – candancealot – and see what you get!!
- Congratulations to Mick Burke & Greg Lamb on winning their cricket Grand Final for Long Island over the summer – seems Burkey celebrated a little too long and hard and the boys were calling him Stewie Dew when he hit the track at the Bullpit.
- Congratulations to those who got married during the off-season, Matt & Claire Jakobi and David & Tenielle Measham.
- Hirsty & Hoady have introduced a fines system for the club. They have 3 fineable offences this year.
  1. General Fines - $2 – for doing stupid things as per other years. Eg. Duncan Proud on Triple M radio last weekend talking shit, Doc falling asleep whilst on the job with his missus etc etc, you know the deal
  2. Look a likes - $2 – you are fined $2 bucks if you are found to look like someone else, generally someone of note. Classic examples to kick the year off last night are Pecko and Gargamel, Justin Farrelly and Morne Morkel, and Al Williams and the pimply faced nerd kid from the Simpsons
  3. Karingal Be Seen - $2 – if you are unfortunate enough to be spotted somewhere silly, eg Frankston leader night club section, website, or any other funny ones then you cop a $2 fine

The look a like and be seen boards are proudly on display at the Club. If you have any contributions to the above, then speak to Timmy Hirst or Hoady and they will ensure the appropriate punishment is dished out

- And finally, one from Colin Hoad.... Phil Weare has been a bit ill. ( ha has been in bed with diweare) get it diahrea. Get it? Yeah we get it Hoady.
