Coaches Report:

Halleluia!! We actually played some exciting, hard, team orientated football. Our players followed instruction, followed through on their words and commitments and were rewarded with a very good win. Our first 3 quarters were excellent, with our leaders and more experienced players providing a strong example for the others to follow. The heat was put on the leadership group during the week and they responded exceptionally well. To be 100 points up at ¾ time against a side 2 spots above us on the ladder indicates that we are capable at times, however we need to bring that level of intensity, enthusiasm and hardness to every single minute of each game we play. Our level of effort dropped off dramatically in the last quarter which allowed Chelsea to dominate the quarter and feel better about themselves which I was very disappointed with. Football is so much about what is going on inside your head and I thought we missed an opportunity to really crush them mentally moving fwd. We need to think more like the Samurai warrior; SAMUARAI'S CREED FOR COMBAT-IF YOUR OPPONENTS RHYTHM IS DISORGANISED OR IF HE HAS FALLEN INTO EVASIVE ACTION OR RETREATING ATTITUDES, YOU MUST CRUSH HIM STRAIGHT AWAY WITH NO CONCERN FOR HIS PRESENCE AND WITHOUT ALLOWING HIM SPACE FOR BREATH. IT IS ESSENTIAL TO CRUSH HIM ALL AT ONCE. THE PRIMARY THING IS NOT TO LET HIM RECOVER HIS POSITION, EVEN A LITTLE.

It was fantastic to give young Bedders his first senior game of footy and equally pleasing to see him go back, steady and kick a goal for the team. The way that his teammates responded by running from all over the ground to congratulate him was brilliant, certainly made me proud to be a Karingal person. Congratulations to Aaron 'Cyril Rioli' Jack on his 50th senior game against Chelsea, he has been playing good footy and playing an important role for us so well done mate.

We play a resurgent in form Pines looking for revenge this week so we must go after them, throw the first punch and not take a backward step. A big challenge for us, the hunted becoming the hunters.

BULLS KILLER INSTINCT- "WHERE SINGLE MINDEDNESS AND EFFECIENCY MEET, RUTHLESSNESS IS THE RESULT."

Reserves – 8th

Karingal 10. 6. 66

Chelsea 8. 7. 55

Goals: S. Duffield 4, A. Osborne 4, J. Kerrigan , P. Bardsley

Best: D. Webster, T. Allcott, S. Duffield, J. Martinson, T. Burgdorf, B. Groenendyk

Coaches Report:

We had a really tough fought victory against Chelsea. Most pleasing was the contribution from all 22 players. The 9 guys that went through the midfield won the clearances for us, the defenders all beat their opponents and forwards worked together to create space. Across the board all 22 players contributed to our effort indicators in Tackles, blocks and clearances. We need this every week from all 22. Though there is still a lot of room for improvement, I think we took steps to becoming a more selfless team today. We are starting to move the ball a lot quicker through run and handball which is reflective of the last couple of weeks of training. Chelsea had their strongest side for the season with three 1sts premierships players back in the line up, so to get our second win was really positive affirmation that we are moving in the right direction. That the effort is there from all 22 and that we are starting to move the ball like we have been at training. Training has been great the last two weeks. You train well, you play well! Let's make sure we sustain this effort. If we are to be known as a tough, uncompromising side this year we need to bring this effort and focus every week. Let's carry this mindset into this week's game against Pines who gave us a touch up in round 1.

• Last Word

- Clarkey and a couple of the boys were headed down to Venus Bay on a mates bucks weekend recently and when passing through a lot of the towns down that way they noticed people with signs on the side of the road and messages written all over the place. They slowed down as they passed through Kilcunda and were able to read the signs like “NO DESAL” and “STOP THE DESAL” etc. Fair enough, thought most of the boys. Clarkey, however obviously unaware the world’s largest desalination plant was being constructed down that way turned to the rest of them and said “What do these people have against diesel, I run my car on diesel and never have any dramas!”
- Another Sunday night session at the George... resulting in LVR spending most of Monday in the toilet at work bringing up Sunday nights special, nice work Captain!
- To young Cal & Bedders, we know they are young, but we need to make a stance on this behaviour, and stamp it out early. Both seen kissing, cuddling, holding hands in the club rooms after the match with their missus’. Public displays of affection ARE NOT tolerated young fellas, so learn from your mistakes.
- A few of the boys saw Luke Ritchie leaving the clubrooms Sat night – he was walking to his car in the dark and tripped over a ditch and landed flat on his face and hit is head pretty hard – I was about to run over to lend some assistance (not really) but then I heard his stupid laugh and realized no damage was done – some might say the damage was done many many years ago
- Seems the boys up in Tocumwal on the weekend had a good time. Scotty Freys new nickname is apparently ‘pinky’ (pretty rough coming from Wal) and Pencil might have broken his thumb having a scuffle with a local - you’ve really lost that fighting ability Penna!
- Despite their best attempts to stop the people seeing their feeble attempt at hair modelling, the photos have finally surfaced! (see below) But boys, you guys are ugly hair models, why cant you leave your shirts on? And Toddy, that girl is looking at you like you’re a cheese burger, watch out!

- After the Bulls big win last week, and during a rousing rendition of the team song, Hoady got a little bit overawed, and forgot the words to the team song! He then started singing the wrong words, with ‘See the Bulls fly up, up!’ not the official team song, but good try, Troy!
