Bonbeach 21. 14 140

Goals: R. Bartlett-Quinn 4, B. Mitchell 3, A. Jack 2, K. Docherty , L. Forsyth

Best: J. Farrelly, R. Bartlett-Quinn, L. Adams, D. Proud, B. Dunne, L. VanRaay

Coaches Report:

I thoroughly enjoyed watching the way Bon Beach played the game. Right from the first bounce they dictated the play. It was obvious that they were committed to playing on at all times and were disciplined at looking to move the ball as quickly as possible through the middle of the ground. As a result they made us look second rate, slow, soft and at times our players looked disinterested. We lacked leadership and a willingness to fight our way out of a challenging situation. We have been tested severely over the past couple of weeks and we have failed spectacularly. It says a lot about where we are at right now as a team. We have two choices moving forward as the challenge we face is only going to get a whole lot tougher; we either make the choice that it is all too hard and not worth the effort or we follow through on our word at the beginning of the year and that was, we wanted the opposition to describe us as RUTHLESS UNITED & HARD. Right now they are merely words on a wall that mean sweet F A. Bon Beach would describe us as anything but ruthless united & hard. Once again too few of our players are battling to cover for the rest of their teammates and we will never be competitive while we have players who are happy enough to allow their teammates to do all the work. This weeks Seaford game comes at a fantastic time because it forces us to face the competitions best team who will be fired up after being knocked off last week. There will be no where to hide and only we will only have each other to depend on in the heat of battle. I'm looking fwd to seeing which choice the boys have made come the first bounce on Sat. Pecko

Reserves – 8th

Karingal 8. 5. 53

Bonbeach 19. 8. 122

Goals: G. Goodall 4, A. Osborne 3, P Bardsley 1

Best: G. Goodall, M Lindley, J Zimo, T Jack, A. Osborne

Coaches Report:

A really disappointing start to the game by our guys today. Bonbeach although runners up in the Grand Final last year in the seconds have had mixed results this year and were only a game and a half above us. To be down by 7 goals at quarter time showed that a lack of commitment to our performance benchmarks, a lack of respect for our opponents and a lack of respect for our 10 team mates that did not get opportunity to play. It was pleasing, but also frustrating that from quarter time onwards every player really had a crack and followed our direction after some pretty major structural changes. We managed to keep pace with them from quarter time onwards. It's disappointing that it takes a 7 goal reality check to spark us into action. This has happened regularly and is not good enough. It's the difference between

As we mentioned last week names on a team sheet mean nothing unless they are willing to play for each other and follow the team benchmarks. With 15-20 players missing out on a game on a weekly basis we expect a stronger effort from the 22 selected for all four quarters. We know we can do it because we have done it in patch's this year, but it has all been to inconsistent. Seaford this week is a huge challenge again, but one we should be up for! Let's get back to our benchmarks of clearances, tackling, blocks and running the football. We have spent most of the last two weeks at training working on running the football. This week let's be brave and take them on, run and draw. It will take a sustained effort from all 22 to get the points

• Last Word

- Paul Bardsley had to rush home from training on Thursday night and miss a compulsory meeting due to he and his girlfriend celebrating their.....wait for it.....their 4 month anniversary. Yes you read it correctly 4 months. Setting himself up for some pain later down the track when it comes to 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 months etc. The pressure will be on, silly boy. Congratulations though from all of us at the Bullpit. Someone get me a bucket, I'm about to spew in my mouth
- A few of the boys were having a drink before heading out on the town not too long ago when one of the boys, who had obviously just been shopping arrived in a lovely new jacket. Clarky (Reserves Coach) was so impressed with this jacket he went up and had a closer look. "Oh that's nice" he said, "Is that leather or veal?".....
"No Brad" he said while laughing hysterically "It's actually suede!"..... Chin up Clarkey!
- A certain treasurer at the football club was spotted last Thursday at his favourite night spot (Vinnies Pizza & Pasta) looking pretty happy with his new look. Yes, Wal was trotting around proud as punch in his new CFM knee high ugg boots! A stunning look.
- We all know about the potential dangers of Swine Flu and clearly it's an occupational health hazard for professional sports people. Take the Saints for instance, there's N Riewoldt, L Hayes, etc etc and then there's T Hirst who got in on the mask action on the way to the Gold Coast a couple of weeks back. Clearly they are all on the same level, from Captain to Sponsorship assistant!
- A big thank you to Nails, Wally & Theo VanRaay for stepping in to run the gate at the last home game.
- Poor old Simmo, not only does his brother have the Swine Flu (perhaps he should have borrowed Timmys mask) but out comes another story of Simmo not being able to hold his liquor. Last Friday night a few of the boys went around to Pittys for a drink, by 11pm Simmo had passed out, spewed all over himself and in no less than 7 different spots of Pittys house/backyard.
