ROUND 12

6 Wins in a ROW and the BULLS are on track for the 1st time in 6 years to play senior Finals. Seems the concerned have had their fears alleviated as it must be said the BULLS Best is surely yet to come. This week is a great test for all 3 sides against YCW at Jubilee Park... I look forward to a GREAT day there followed by a massive night back at the Bullpit for the $5,000 Draw – THANK YOU to all who have made the effort to make it a successful night for the club – More next week on this. LAST WEEK... The Unders battled hard against Edi Asp but found the heat a bit hot for their liking – although great improvement (especially with the players out) can be seen. Young Timmy Smith was the best and has put pressure on to return to the seniors whilst Azza, Josh, Tarek and Got none rounded out the better players. The reserves returned to the Winners list – the hard way. After leading all day and controlling the game they contrived somehow to let Edi Asp in very late... Scoring shots of 18 -10 highlight their dominance – the next 2 weeks will be paramount to their finals hopes also... Best were Danny G, Oz, Bobcat, Micky Lindley again and big Grant Goodall in his first game... The Seniors started poorly – a rare occurrence – and trailed by 21 points at ¼ time... although wasted opportunities was the name of the game until then... A Brilliant 2nd and 3rd quarter saw us turn it all around and head safely into the last with a buffer which we lost within 5 minutes and had to fight all the way for Victory... A well earned 3 goal WIN allows us the stepping stone for this week... What a FANTASTIC Challenge to be a part of for all – GO BULLS!!!

Best were Butthead, Bev, Lukey F, Pecko and another scintillating effort by Pippy Phillips. The pressure is now on to play our best – A Taste is not enough – Lets want the whole thing – It MUST start this WEEK... GO BULLS. This week also The PENNA is back!!!

Coaches Report

A solid performance against one of the best sides in the competition. Kicking straight for goal is a concern and one we need to rectify quickly. Hopefully training on the ground mid week will assist us to improve in this critical area. As each week goes by I feel that we are playing more as a team, rather than a bunch of talented individuals. I believe that this is the only way that Karingal will have an impact, not only this year but also next year and beyond. We have an opportunity to achieve special things but it is going to take every player at Karingal to make the decision to jump on board, play your role and at times be SELFLESS and do what is best for the team. TEAMS WIN GAMES OF FOOTBALL, CLUBS WIN PREMIERSHIPS - NOT INDIVIDUALS. The current rewards (A spot in the 4) for playing as a team are there for all to see. The only stats that I keep are our 'Selfless Acts' and it was great to have nearly 30 more than we did last week. It shows that our guys are committed and working hard, especially when we have not got the football. Late in the game, to see two of our forwards gang tackle one of the opposition was one of the most pleasing pieces of play I have seen all year. The exciting fact is that we can still improve in this area – THERE IS NO FINISHING LINE TO BEING A GREAT TEAM!!! We face another huge challenge tomorrow against a side that like every other side in the competition, are in our way. It's another opportunity to display what it means to be a Karingal person. - Pecko

2nds – 4th Position

Karingal	7.	11	53
Edi Asp	8.	2	50

Goals: A Osborne 4, M Lindley, N Shaw, C Bonnar.

Best: G Goodall, D Green, M Lindley, A Osborne, A Callahan.

Coaches Report

Great to back on the winners list. We started the game extremely well with Grant Goodall, Danny Green and Adam Callahan killing them out of the middle. We took our foot off the peddle a little and let them kick a few goals to bring them back level with us. Some silly decision making by myself cost us a goal but as a whole we started playing some decent footy again, just not for the full four quarters. To the boys credit we were full of run and pressure in the last quarter and came away with a great win.

YCW this week – always a hard slog, lets play as a team and come away with the win.

Things to work on this week: 1 coach, 1 team, 22 leaders. Pitty

3rds – 9th Position

Karingal	2.	4	16
Edi Asp	17.	10	112

Goals: S Pegler, T Smith.

Best: T Smith, A Guy, J McCoy, T Le Lievre, A Friend.

Coaches Report

Saturday highlighted another step forward. It is now quite clear there are two levels in the U18 competition. Five stand out sides, all who interestingly field under 17's or a colt side, and then there are the rest in which we are one. Saturday's game was one of missed opportunities, clearly we had as much of the football although failed to use this to our advantage. The boys work their butts off to get the ball then too easily turn it over commonly resulting in a goal against. In the coming weeks our challenge will be to train with pressure developing this skill and hopefully reap the rewards. Each week all the boys are asked is to give their all show desire, enthusiasm and determination, the last few weeks I have no doubt this has been the case. Good numbers, young team, marked improvement from round one and some great prospects for the future so again good signs. This week one of the competitions yard sticks and neighbour so get down early and I guarantee you will see just how much the boys have improved. P.S I am now accepting applications for a new U18 runner - Simon 'My knees sore' Drago and Ralph 'Spray on shirt' Hallal, clearly failed to live up to the lofty standards required of being a reliable and responsible message deliverer... applications via the raging bull ASAP - Go Bulls Wisha.

PENNISM

Relax and get comfortable because the SS Penna is about to hit an iceberg and a few people are going down with it. This story has taken over a months research to get but I can guarantee it is worth the longer than usual read. It starts back when Penna brought a new mobile phone, a while back and he seemed to be having some troubles working and receiving calls especially at his house in Langwarrin. This would become in essence his downfall. Start Story - A simple trick that has been getting a lot of laughs around the club recently especially by the boys on Saturday who are bored is called "Operation You Rang me" It goes like this... 2 people with mobiles call 2 people on there Mobiles using private numbers, they then put them on loud speaker and then put the phones together... I.e. Butthead & Jacko ring Scotty Phillips and PENNA, phones are put together so they talk directly and everyone in the room hears the conversation!!! Penna answers the Phone "Hello" and so does Scotty. Penna replies "Whose this – Why did you call?" and so does Scotty... the line is awful because both are on speakerphone and barely audibly. Scott – Scott who? – Penna asks. Scott Phillips he replies – Oh Scotty (after about 10 minutes) – How are you mate its Penna why did you call? I didn't call – You called me comes the reply!!! Anyway says Penna - I can hardly hear you? How about I call you back on the land line my phones bugged – I'm having lost of problems with my mobile at home – Bloody Breeza – I think it must be the colorbond roof – I can't hear anyone while I'm home!!!... Eventually he calls and they have a bit of a chat...none the wiser - Apparently his mobile works ok to Landlines when you actually make the call... mmm Interesting...All this time about 6 guys are in a room listening to this go on with the loudspeaker trying not too wet their pants... Could this work again? The answer with Penna is yes... In fact it worked with Penna and many other Karingal FC people who also became quite agitated by his persistence calls, some people told Penna to get lost – But he thought that they'd called him – So he kept on ringing!!! Penna kept ringing and ringing and ringing (remember actual other people rang for him) several times unable to hear any of them – It was a long Saturday Night and Sunday and even continued on during the week - There were a lot of upset and annoyed people receiving calls from the Penna.

In the end it must be said PENNA – Mate - your phone is fine, it's not the coverage, or the color bond roof – you've been duped mate. Welcome back to Football!!!! The funniest part of this story is when Penna is at the club constantly complaining about his phone being terrible, the color bond roof problems and everyone trying to keep a straight face. Well Done Jacko, Butthead, Tugga – Penna will be rapt to know you like to call him!!!! PS Even better that Wendell went down too... Yippeeeee!!!!

JUNIOR BULLS

Lets start from the top this week...

U15's again struggled to put four quarters together and although went down continue to show improvement.

U14's went close going down by two goals. Again they could have won it but are struggling to know how to win.

U13's were also unlucky going down by a couple of goals but this side still impresses with progress.

U12's played top team and showed that they still have a way to go and although the 1st qtr was great the rest was patchy.

UNDER 11's had their first win not only for this year but for the last 18 months. A great effort and it goes to show that persistence pays off. Well done Jason and all of the kids including Potto's boy Josh, well done.

The 10's came close but were a bit cocky after the drubbing they dished out on their last start.

U9 Whites again dished it up to the opposition and the U9 Reds had a big win which all goes well for the future of the club.

Only 4 games to go in the juniors so don't forget to come down to the rooms on Sunday nights at 5 for a drink.

Go Little BULLS

THE LAST WORD

- Found – 1 Moose imitating a GOOSE – Apparently one way to get famous is nearly rip your clothes off in front of the camera on Friday Night Football – James Haley was spotted at the Saints v Crows game last week in a happier moment as the Saints went on to a great victory. With this means that Approx. 1 Million people across Australia have now seen the Moose – again with no Lady Moose – Its official – You're a grown up – leave the imaginary friends behind.
- Tweeds – the Assistant Coach of the 2nds has now been put on a performance based contract after last weeks victory against Edi Asp. Seems the shadow looms widely over Andrew as the new Assistant Assistant Coach impressed in his first up effort. When asked about this for the Raging Bull, Tweeds responded to this in his usual aplomb manner – “Do you want a punch in the nose? The answer was of course No.
- Whilst Moose was being a goose another minor miracle occurred as the Saints sealed victory – Steve Gage's mobile phone returned from the dead to start sending text messages – Hallelujah!!! Nothing better than being half way thru the 3rd quarter in a tense game when the winner comes thru via the text. Although he still did allude to where was Darren Jarman at this stage? My answer is as fat as a house from all the free Beer / food he received as a 2 time premierships player!!!

- How low can we go? Well an accused saint who turned out to be a tiger – SORRY DI – Is in fact a Docker via Fashion. Nanna Burke is recruiting fiercely into her squad and things are on the up for the 2008 Dockers. Purple will be the new black according to Club Fashion Spokesperson Doug Scott – Also big things are expected from Ladies Scarves for Men!!!
- Brokeback Barry Parsons can't keep out of the news – last week he needed to go to the toilet during a game – So he simply jumped the fence and went behind a tree. This led to the Goal Umpire warning Barry that he should report him for the incident. In Barry's defence he commented – Yeah but Bev did it in a game once. Barry when you start kicking bags of goals and winning league best and fairests, you can do whatever you want... until then show some decorum please mate.
- Michelin Man last week led the charge as the Under 18s runner – apparently some harsh comments directed towards the great man fell on deaf ears as after the game MM was heard to comment “ Not half as bad as Simmo was saying!!!” Although Coach Measham begged to differ and is now stuck with the 1 message per quarter policy due to the time constraints. Late update the Unders runner was last seen stuffing a 3rd Chicken Snitzel down his throat on Wednesday Night in the canteen... When asked how many personal training sessions it would take to work those off he replied... mmmm rarra hhhhh!!! It also seems that both Dean Laidley and Drew Petrie aren't as bad as first thought... We'll leave that to Ralph from Frankston.
- The Big Brother in Doug, the oldest of Pat and Luke was outed this week ironically as a massive Big Brother Fan... Doug who likes to keep his cards close to his chest was revealed not only as a fan but an avid one at that, apparently he's constantly yelling in the Van Raay house “Everyone keep it down– Alisha's trying to vote” Who would have known?
- Unpredicatbull is doing a fantastic job with the Club Notes – But who is this mysterious person? This week's notes are a delightful romp and give some definite clues to our note writer. Highlights include Frumpy Frupeystien ala Mick Burke, and Dim Sim Perfecto and Dim Sim retardo – too very apt descriptions also... Wonder if all will be revealed?
- Ok, Ok Ok ... we all know how much Pecko loves Daryl Braithwaite but last Saturday was getting beyond the point of ridiculous. Daryl's monster hit “Horses” was blaring out of a car from start to finish of the senior game – It may have inspired Pecko but it was certainly an unwanted distraction to the rest of team. If your motto is Selfless then maybe the purchase of an ipod for before and during the game would be more appropriate than getting your friends to play your favourite song all Game. Imagine if we had to listen to Lionel Ritchie's hit “All Night Long” for Smiley from the unders all day long.
- Where's Wally Update? Back due to popular demand. 1st at the club then spotted at the Langy but as the shadow grew longer the famous red hair was spotted at the Pint and Pickle – Classy establishment. Although not alone – he and his partner are yet to confirm what they NAILED? Although it must be said it's not really red anymore – just grey – Well Done Treasurer.

- Famous Past Bulls in the crowd last week – Rick Norman, Jaime Thomas, David Collins – A wonderful cross section of the community there... In fact it's been an enormous HELP this year with the BULLS Supporters who have been in great numbers both home and away and full of voice – This week SHOULD be no exception.
- The Independent this week seemed to provide what should be some MOTIVATING Comments about Karingal FC and I quote – “In essence, Karingal was considered a side that would drop off at different stages of the game, allowing an opposing side to get back into the contest” It also stated that we were considered mentally weak by the sides we played earlier in the season... There really is only 1 way to answer this stinging criticism from other Clubs and that is to play 4 solid quarters of football for the rest of the season, week in week out – The scoreboard will take care of itself. PRIDE Bulls PRIDE.
- This week is just another week of MUST WIN football – we can only control our own destiny – lets take it into our own hands come Saturday. Good Luck to all 3 sides and lets get back for the Big Draw Saturday Night – Still hoping Hoppy wins so the Trip Away gets a kick or even Ozzy WIN who said if he does won he donate it all to an Orient Hotel Drink Card – not many drinks for that Oz – And remember
