ROUND 16

3 from 3 at home – Just what the Doctor ordered – Let me indulge you. The Unders started the BULLS day in great style playing some free flowing football... Rhys kicked 6 while the 2 Bennys – Evans & Guy ran riot ALSO the usual suspects stuck out. Plus an unbelievable run by the one S Phillips – not the senior one – about 10 bounces and 2 hand ball receives – Great to see the parents who had been through it all this year enjoying it immensely. A WIN this week will send us up to 7th and a chance for some respectability – which is nothing more than we deserve for the Unders efforts – GO BULLS. The reserves bounced back big time and gave themselves a chance of playing finals – Lots chipped in for the Big Win with Andrew “More kicks in a week than Fraser Gehrig has had this Season” Osborne smashing home 9 goals in a brilliant performance. A Piece of play must be highlighted... Winning a contested ball on the wing, baulking a player , running the ball, bouncing, running again then spotting up a pin point bullet from 45 metres to the Full Forward – thy name is – LEE GAGE – See what showing up every week and trying your hardest to improve happens – YOU IMPROVE!!! Even Andrew had to ask who kicked that? The Seniors had 5.1 on the board before Hastings touched the ball with big Granta AKA Gooders smashing them down Phillips and Burkes throat. It was an even performance in a great WIN with the younger fellas leading the way – Buddha Hirst & Timmy Smith as standouts – and some confidence gained going into this weeks big games at Chelsea – MUST WIN and Certainly can not be UNDERESTIMATED. Also only 1 Home game left as next week versus Bon Beach is also away – Tomorrow Night is the INTERNATIONAL NIGHT and remember – GO BULLS!!!

AROUND THE TRAPS

- 1. League Meeting held Monday Night – 15-14 votes not enough to get Langwarrin FC into Peninsula FL – No doubting this won't be the last we hear of this – Also passed was increase from 21 to 22 players in seniors – But nothing else was.*
- 2. karingalfc.com – The website has a new webmaster – THANK YOU to them – Hopefully in the future you will see the upgrading of the site with more information, history and the newsletter each week - NOW posted there and readily available. Please let anyone who doesn't receive this directly know where they can access all their Karingal Fc information*
- 3. Max's Trip Away – The Big fella is organizing a less adventurous trip – to say Melbourne for the weekend for the slightly more mature Karingal FC person – all are invited –Please speak to Max ASAP for Bookings.*

MATCH REPORTS

1sts – 4th Position

Karingal	23.	13	151
Hastings	6.	6	42

Goals: S Phillips 5, T Elliott 4, T Smith 3, M Burke 3, B Malloy 2, L Adams 2, J Peckett 2, D Hirst & B Parsons.

Best: M Burke, S Phillips, D Hirst, T Smith, G Goodall.

Coaches Report

An outstanding win against a team that has obviously struggled all year. However, getting up for these types of games can sometimes be difficult so I was proud of the way our boys committed themselves for 4 qtrs. That's Killer Instinct. Another pleasing aspect was the contribution of some of our younger players, the challenge now is to back it up this week boys. A tough encounter tomorrow against a quality side that will be keen to knock off a top 4 side. We need to embrace the added expectation that comes with being a top 4 team and deliver on our Hard Accountable Selfless Proud approach to football. – Pecko.

2nds – 5th Position

Karingal	17.	8	110
Hastings	4.	7	31

Goals: A Osborne 9, C Lindley 3, T Callahan 2, C Holzer, C Reichman & M Lindley.

Best: A Osborne, C Reichmann, B Clark, R Hoad, C Holzer.

Coaches Report

Well after my last negative report the boys seemed to respond well with a very pleasing display against Hastings. Although not playing a top four side, you can only beat your opposition on the day. We moved the ball well from half back and through the middle which resulted in Osbourne slotting 9 majors. Another pleasing aspect was a much more disciplined team turned up this week with no silly free kicks or 50 meter penalties being given away. Some good individual efforts from Reichy, Clarky and Cam Holzer returning from a knee injury. The challenges keep coming up week after week for both sides and this week is no exception, another must win game if we want to keep the finals dream alive. P.S. Sorry Wal, numbers still not low enough to name you on the bench! Pitty

3rds – 9th Position

Karingal	15.	11	101
Hastings	6.	3	39

Goals: R Bartlett Quinn 6, G Rangi-Clark 3, A Guy, M Jones, B Guy, A Hall, N Mair, S Pegler.

Best: R Bartlett Quinn, B Evans, B Guy, T Le Lievre, J McCoy.

Coaches Report

A ten goal victory no matter when, where, how or why is a fantastic effort. The boys played as a team and one who knew they were going to win from start to finish; it's amazing what a little confidence will do. Last week we decided to change the training schedule and leave it until match day for the team to be picked, maybe this kept some of the players on edge or more switched on I don't know. It was fantastic to see the boys take a side on and play as they train – play on at all costs – kick long – switch the play – run and carry, ferocious tenacity etc, all this whilst ignoring the cheap shots and sniping from the opposition. Ryce QUINN was fantastic up forward bagging six and having two opponents for most of the day. Ben Evans and instrumental through the middle and down back along with Ben GUY, Jayden PETERS, Tareke LE LIEVRE and Josh McCOY – The next three games are all winnable particularly this week in Chelsea a side we defeated the first time around. Hopefully unlike last time round the boys don't get carried away with beating a side who had not won a game and we can continue to move forward and finish with a flurry. Wisha

SOCIAL REPORT – By the Roving Bull

OK, straight into it this week. We've all heard in the news in recent times about the ruthless bashings of some unfortunate taxi drivers who are guilty of nothing more than doing their job, serving the community. Well last weekend it was....'Revenge of the Taxi Drivers!' Little Timmy Hirst had a rare night away from his Baby Chino (Little Timmy's nickname for his girlfriend) spending a Saturday night out in the city with the boys. As usual Little Timmy couldn't keep up the drinking pace with the lads, falling further and further behind in their shout. Couple that with the constant SMS messages to Baby Chino saying how much he missed her, Little Timmy decide to slink on the boys and catch a taxi home to his darl. Passed out in the front seat, Timmy was awoken by the grumpy taxi driver on their arrival home. With a glance at the meter, little Timmy was a bit shocked to see it was showing a fare of over $100! He wasn't too fussed, after all he was finally home to his Baby Chino, which too little Timmy is priceless. He gets out his trusty EFTPOS card and swipes it through the machine but no reading. He swipes it again but with the same result. Little Timmy looks into his wallet for some cash but finds only $10. "I'll just go inside and grab some money from my Daddy" says little Timmy to the taxi driver. The driver quite obviously did not believe him then "WHACK!!" Next thing little Timmy knows he's got blood pouring from his nose! The driver gave him a left jab and then proceeded to steal his wallet! Not wanting blood in his clean cab, the driver pushes little Timmy out of the front seat and onto the driveway, then drives away with little Timmy's wallet and $10! Waiting up inside for Timmy was Baby Chino, who could faintly hear the sound of sniffles out the front. On her inspection Baby Chino found little Timmy on the front lawn, holding his bloodied face, in the fetal position! Poor Little Timmy! Might be a while before you see little Timmy in a taxi again! PENNISM

When driving one day Penna began to laugh, at first a little chuckle then building in crescendo to a belly laugh. Everyone else in the car was scratching their heads – What's so funny? When asked Penna simply replied "Oh just a joke between Penna and myself" replies Penna – something's were best kept to himself. Penna has officially finished – Good Bye.
Penna's Football Career RIP 2007

JUNIOR BULLS

The end of the home & away season saw the young bulls put in some great performances. The 12's have a week off this week after finishing second. Well done Bulls. Results:

U9 White - 7 WINS in a row for the whites. What a way to finish the year.
U9 Red - Chalked up a big win to cap off a great year.
U10's - Just fell short against very good opposition but played fantastic.
U11's - Didn't get the points this week but tasted some well earned success this year.
U12's - Snared second spot with a big win in the last round. Finals in a fortnight!!
U13's - Dished out an absolute flogging to cap off a fantastic season.
U14's - Has the Bulls song been sung any louder? First win of the season against one of the ladder leaders. How sweet it is.

We will be following the progress of the Under 12s throughout the Finals – PS Who coached them last year – a trend is emerging.

GO LITTLE BULLS

THE LAST WORD

- Luke Ritchie has had many career highlights at the Bull Pit – of course none are on the ground – but still last week a couple his efforts are worth mentioning. Whilst watching Sammy Jordan (Pecko's younger brother) playing the "Who wants to be a Millionaire" Game – Sammy opted for the phone a friend option – Luke asked "Who does it ring?" Sammy quickly replied " mate, it's only a game - it doesn't ring anyone" Bad Start. This was followed with a terrible game day performance on the grog culminating in bragging to some rather amused ladies about him being the only runner then boundary umpire to ever be sent off from junior footy.. You loser... To finish the night Luke went to the Langwarrin Hotel where he was cut off at the bar and when trying to argue his case was escorted from the premise. All in all – a bottler of a day. Go Demons.
- Old Stager is a term usually reserved for those above 30 with a few wily tricks up their sleeve – but when the Senior Coach announced Michael "Old Stager" Burke on Saturday night as an award recipient this opened Pandora's Box. It begs the following question – Why is Mick an Old Stager? – Well let's see – Is it a) he always falls asleep standing up whilst drinking at an early hour OR b) he always feigns handballs using his team mates as decoys (see photo above) or is it c) he needs to be. To enable him to even slightly remember when his beloved Tigers were a force... It is definitely a hard one but last word is leaning towards C – you really would need to be and old stager to remember that... Seems that the Old Stager battled on hard on Sunday night – maybe a little too hard. Reports suggest that Michael did in fact have Friday on his mind at a rock concert but was unable to remember any words to any songs what so ever. This didn't stop the 2 Double quarter pounder and bacon meals on the way home... Overall a GREAT Weekend had – Well done DAWN!!!
- AFL - Enjoy this deservedly then - A fighting fury were from TIGER LAND, in any weather you will see us with a GRIN – Doesn't really sound like the Tigers supporters I know from Karingal – Frey, Vine, Hay, Burkes, Clark – But weren't they a buzz last Saturday after their pulsating victory over the Pies. No possible way the Tigers are tanking – they aren't smart enough. The Blues proved irresistible again last week and this week has brought back in the piece de résistance of Tanking in our beloved Captain Lance Whitnall – Bravo Rats Bravo. CATS UPDATE – every win brings you closer to a loss... Although the arguing about seat status on the trip to Skilled Stadium Grand Final Sunday reflects their confidence – Will this be the biggest thing in Geelong since the Pyramid Collapse? Ouch the irony...
- Long Island CC Super Coach Update - Finals experience can't be bought. Former Karingal FC Premiership player Mark Sargant stepped up to take out the first qualifying final against Choccy Moose, despite Moose finishing the home and away season one game clear on top. Could it be a straight sets departure for the Moose? I think playing the game in your lifetime might be an advantage!!! One place the Moose is doing ok according to sources is at CLUB 44 half times. Little Frankfurt production has been doubled and up to 5 people snuck in early last week just in the hope of seeing some not in Moose's wake - Poor Robyn Burke has commented their may be levy on his membership next year.

- Whitey (No. 1 Dishy at the Langy) and Super Sleuth is now on the track of the Club note writer Unpredicatbull – seems he has taken offense to the writing especially about himself. Seems he want be too pleased with this week efforts then... “International night tonight back at the club. Promises to be a fantastic night with food and drink from all over the world. Looking forward to ‘Whitey’s World Languages” segment, should be a ripper” Lets hope he doesn’t find out who writes the notes as this cold be the start of WW3 – Who knows when this will end?
- It’s not often that we see WORLD RECORDS broken at the Bull Pit but last week during the 3rd quarter a new world record for running backwards over 10m was set by the Senior Runner. Has anyone ever seen someone run so quickly backwards from a trainer?? – Watch out Beijing Olympics 2008 if he could do it going forwards...lots of ice also was required...For the older guys he was about ½ second quicker than Lowey in the 2s at Crib Point one year...
- Have you heard about Karingal’s latest and greatest Supporter. His name is Aussie. He stands 18” tall. He is brown and white and has eyes only for Karingal Football Club Players. We are talking about Allan Williams dog named Aussie. He is a brown kelpie and only 9 months old. The Williams have taken him a couple of times to the games. The First time was the YCW game, Aussie was watching our guys come onto the ground and was jumping around, then when the YCW guys ran out, in a group, he started to growl and bark at them. Coincidence maybe... until on Saturday, versus Hastings, he did exactly the same thing at the Hastings guys. This is true and can be verified by Timmy Smiths Dad - He couldn’t believe it. Great to see supporters in all shapes and forms with their PASSION - GO BULLS!!!
- Under 18 Boys have been flying under the radar a bit this year – but not through lack of trying. It seems that 1 certain confident individual has been sprouting off at his team mates about his sexual prowess and ability with the fairer sex. Although to be honest showering with your boxers on every week is now apparently a turn on...
- Leaving the BEST for Last - Heeeey HEEYYYY Baby – Ooohhh Aahhh – I wanna knoooooow - if you’ll be my Girl? BARRY PARSONS – you beauty. Anyone who hasn’t seen the Barry Parson’s Frankston Council Christmas Photos – just simply doesn’t know what they are missing out on. First the quiet, well mannered accountant becomes the scantily clad sex god with his shirt off – tanned and buffed – what the? – and singing to lets say more or less the whole council whilst doing one armed push ups – Now that’s multitasking. An audition tape for Man Power – you bet. God Bless you Barry for making life so enjoyable to the countless people out there – you really are 1 in a million – HEEEEEEY, Heeyy Baby!!!! My favorite shot is of one gentleman holding onto his girlfriend for dear life as Barry sings up a storm whilst standing half naked on there table, and looking rather pleased... its everyone man, woman and child for themselves!!!!
- Finally – Well done to Dutch and Kirbys on making it to the social pages of the local papers – stylish pictures of both – great to see Bulls about town – this week is a massive test away from home – we are still holding our own destiny but any slip ups will allow others back in – NOT THIS YEAR – its full steam ahead. Big night Saturday night for all who love a good time and remember -
