Coaches Report

Obviously for all concerned, it was a hugely disappointing way to finish what has been a good year for the Karingal Football Club. In big games like the Prelim, if you do not play your best football, it is always going to be difficult to get the result that you are after. Especially against an outfit like the YCW FC, they are an exceptional team, which over the years have proven themselves time and time again at finals time. The most frustrating aspect for me is that despite not playing at the standard that we had set ourselves throughout the year, we were still in the game for the most part. In the end it was the 3rd qtr that really cost us, with the other 3 qtrs relatively even on the scoreboard. On the day we were not good enough, however I firmly believe that we are definitely capable of achieving the ultimate. My belief is based on the fact that as a club / team / individually we improved tremendously from the start of the season. To the player's credit, they were able to go from a 1-4 start to 1 win away from a Grand Final appearance. That not only takes ability and talent but also, courage, a willingness to compete, hard work, sacrifice, a deep desire to do your best and the ability to support your team mates to do the same. We are well placed to improve further in 08 if everyone is prepared to do what it takes to win a Premiership. As the coach and as a team mate, I am incredibly proud of what we as a club have achieved this year and I look fwd to giving it another good crack next year. A sincere thank you to all those involved at the Mighty Bulls and I hope to see you all next season. Go Bulls. Pecko

CLUB PERSONS OF THE WEEK

The Ladies (and the new girl!!!)

This weeks goes to the Ladies plus some who made the Lasagne for dinner last Friday Night at selection. Special efforts involved also to make sure enough bread was available – MUCHLY APPRECIATED!!! Well done to Ann Jack and filling in back from the country Aaron plus Robyn Williams ... Thank you for the whole year (Also SUPER ROBYN!!!)

JUNIOR BULLS

Junior footy is now done and dusted including presentations and our Annual General Meeting. Some highlights of the presentations included Effie Rangi being recognised as Club Person of the Year. Thoroughly deserved as I don't think anyone would dispute Effie's contribution over the last two years and in particular this year. Thanks also to Jason Borthwick, Amanda Constable and Gary Morgan who were also major contributors behind the scenes with a mountain of work around the club. Thanks to everyone who put their hand up this year and said "I can do that". With at least six new people on a committee of twelve members - We will only get stronger.

Daniel Jones picked up his third B&F in a row in the 15's. Congratulations Daniel and to all our trophy winners. Most of all, well done to all of our junior footballers.

Club goals this year were to build new coaches boxes which we achieved. Helping the seniors with funding for the new lights which we also achieved. Our goals for the 2008 season are to have a new fully enclosed scoreboard by the start of 2008 and going from eight, to nine teams being fielded to help secure a successful feeder network for the senior club.

MAD MONDAY AWARDS

With Roving Bull out of action its time to step up and announce the winners from the silliest day of the year – when we put all the regrets of footy behind us and celebrate, as only men can do – by drinking too much alcohol, loving, fighting and generally making fools of ourselves... and if your really lucky – WINNING the big bucks on CLUEDO!!! 2007 good bye in style...

Adam Callahan – The Homeless Award – A Magnificent effort to drink non stop for 24+ hours without sleep... Bravo – One can only imagine what would happen if he'd actually played.

Mick Burke – Fell Asleep Standing up Award – Trying to emulate Bobby (above) but couldn't... Just like Tigers - Short again!!! This trophy may well become the Michael Burke Perpetual Trophy. Who won't forget the trademark nod when trying to talk.

Whitey – The No. 1 Supporter Award – I write this Whitey so stop bagging me out – DIGGER!!!! Also Luke Van Raay is Unpedicatabull! You were a CROWD favorite at the Grand Hotel and put Luke Ritchie in his No. 2 Spot.

Luke Forsyth – Where did he go Award - AKA Slinky – Closely beat out Pecko, Lamby and Bev – Great efforts by all to leave without trying to let anyone know...

Doug Scott – Fashion Nazi Award – Being outshone by Whiteys clothes so decided to rip them up so people would start talking about his silly hat again... only to have the Hirst Brothers and boyfriend molest him...plus the LAUGH – golly gosh!!!

Todd Farrelly / Buddha Hirst – Siamese Twins Award – You go 1 you get both – just like a pizza 2 for 1 deal – seems like a good idea when you order it but you always bite off more than you can chew...Keep them away from CLUEDO also.

Luke Adams – Best Tan Award – Not just a talented footballer but also the Queensland's best...in winter???

All in all a great day had by all, not much damage done especially during the day ...but after that who knows... see you in 2008

THE LAST WORD

- Brownlow shock for Cats fans this week– And were not talking about Bartel beating Ablett – but Cameron Ling with female company – unbelievable. This would no doubt be the biggest news EVER but this week the Brady sisters admitted having a lesbian affair – OH MY GOD – Marcia really did like Jan – never saw that one coming (Think you need to be 30+ to enjoy thinking about that one!!!) Why is this in the Newsletter? Cause if you watched it – you loved it.
- Arrivals – 2 New BOYS this week... Firstly On Sunday Luke Riley Sullivan arrived for former player Damien Sullivan and partner Kerryn – then on Tuesday former player and now HASTINGS traitor, I mean trainer Keiran Worland had a little fella come thru with partner Emma named William Jack Worland – CONGRATULATIONS to both sets of parents on their exciting news.
- AFL Grand Final - Its been 44 years in the making but lets get it out – GOOOOO CATS – For Christ's sake please let them WIN – even if Wally will be saying “When was your last premiership?” Take the pain and misery out of their lives and give them hope...You have the POWER...Just in case anyone thinks it's simply a game - think again. The CATS – the only real COUNTRY Club have rebuilt over the last 8 years from $6 million in debt to be in front. This included personal guarantees of $1 Million by the president that kept the club afloat – NOW THAT'S PASSION AND COMMITMENT. The Power – may be the newest club in the league with the smallest interstate following but THINK - they are like St Kilda joining the AFL where there is only 1 other Melbourne Based Club (Would have about 3 Million Supporters – Like Adelaide) except with one exception - they are the most successful club in football history with 35 (That's right including 2004) Premierships – THEY ARE DESPISED by all but loved by their supporters more than any club. So when you down your last beer and turn away from the screen just remember that the people who are supporting these teams are living their dreams too... so as I said GOOOOOO CATS.

- Next Friday Night is Presentation Night at the RSL (Just in case you don't read) and a bottle of a night is certain. There will be all the usual awards and ceremony and a chance for all supporters of the club to get along and enjoy each others company at the home of one of our finest sponsors for a final time...
