ROUND 5

A BIG Welcome to all the Ladies who are now receiving the Newsletter, we hope to inform you of all upcoming functions and to get you more involved at Karingal FC...Last week was NOT a great Day for the Club really... The Unders had a battle from start to finish... there's some light at the end of the tunnel though if ever so small... The Reserves never threatened... really disappointing as the top team to be ordinary all day BUT still having chances to win the game late was a small positive... The Seniors began with a bang, 2 early goals set us alight but from there on we were out muscled and out pointed – 22 less scoring shots and a real wake up call to where we are at... Work to be done... improvement needed and faith needs to be shown in the Bulls. This week back at home versus the Mounties... its time to deliver. If you haven't updated your CLUB 44 membership – now is the time with a plethora of home games coming up and a great chance to network amongst the inner sanctum..as Max would say... GO BULLS

Coaches Report

An incredibly disappointing effort on the weekend. We had a fantastic opportunity to show what we are made of against the best side in the competition in near perfect conditions and we failed. It is even more frustrating because I know we are so much better than what we showed. It's not through a lack of talent, football is about attitude and mental toughness week in week out which is hard to do but the rewards are there if you want it bad enough. We had the best of intentions during the week but when it mattered most (in the heat of battle), our actions did not mirror what we said we would do. I thought our backline stood up well considering how many times the football came into Seaford's forward line. Our midfielders were unaccountable, soft and allowed their midfield to dictate play and pump the ball into their forward line at will. At the other end I thought our forwards were dangerous once we moved the ball quickly, inside and direct. At the end of the day though, it is about 'weight of numbers' and we just had too many players who went missing or just accepted that it was not our day. It concerns me when I hear Karingal people talk about the fact that we will now play the other sides down the bottom of the ladder so we should be able to notch up a few wins. You should never underestimate the opposition because if we do not come prepared for the toughest game of the year this weekend, Mt Eliza will do exactly what Seaford and Edi Asp did to us. 21 Bulls players with A Grade Effort and Killer Instinct will smash the opposition; it's as simple as that – Pecko.

2nds

Karingal 6. 5 41
Seaford 14. 6 90

Goals: M Longley 3, Osborne, T Callahan, A Callahan.

Best: T Callahan, P Maurice, N Shaw, M Hamling, B Burns

Coaches Report

Went down to a more determined team on the day. They were first in for the ball and a lot harder than us which is the game style that I expect from our guys. We have to learn to not get ahead of our selves. This week we have to stick to the job that we to do best which is to be hard, 1st to ball and disposal - Pitty

3rds

Karingal
Seaford

Goals: J Kerrigan.

Best: B Evans, T Le Lievre, J Kerrigan, J Martinson, S Hunt

Coaches Report

Another tough hit out against a quality opposition. To be honest the first quarter was by far our worst for the year.

After giving my first coaching spray 'Sorry to all those ladies who may have been listening!' the boys responded, lifting their efforts with the third quarter being by far our best for the year. Again I can only plead with the players to realize no matter who we play if we play our style of football - being accountable man on man play with ferocious pressure - responding with playing on at all costs switching the play etc.. We won't be far away. The results have shown we are far from a side that can run around playing soft and unaccountable football. Our second home game of the year this week against a Mt Eliza side minus about 'Nine private school boys' Sorry Hammo and Barn!! - This is a chance for us to put in a good show against a team we'll be evenly matched against. Get down early and support the boys. Wisha

SOCIAL REPORT – by the ROVING BULL

Well it was Back to School for Karingal Football Club last week and a good night was had by all involved. There were plenty of cold beverages being served by the Canteen and the Time Out area luckily was not needed!!! Most people made the effort to dress up and all looked sensational with special mention going to Augustus Gloop, Gina 'Gavin' King and Tim 'the kid we all beat up at school' Hirst! Kingy and Jacko were definitely the most hit on students there, showing their fair share of cleavage and lippy! Patty Rafter look-a-like, Doug Scott certainly let his hair down for the night getting the girly giggles very early in proceedings! Dougy was seen numerous hours later breaking up a fight between two school yard bullies! Great work Doug! By the time the night was out Michael Burke got detention for falling asleep standing up again (4th time this year), Chris Hay got suspended for bullying and Kingy got expelled for sexually harassing Chris 'Double' Dekka. Overall a successful night was had.

One more thing for players, officials, supporters and partners: PLEASE make the effort to attend as many functions as you can during the year as they are an integral part of the football clubs survival, not only for financial reasons but for club camaraderie also. Anyone and everyone are welcome to attend, the more the merrier. A big thanks also to Jess Duffield and anyone else who helped out with the organizing and running of the night, much appreciated. Next Function: Westernport Hotel after Hastings game, everyone invited.

PENNISM

It runs in the family apparently... thank you to a kind source for this one. Penna's younger but slightly bigger brother Simon (Penna2 from this point on) also hasn't escaped with the momentary brain freezes according to all reports. Also on a trip to Bendigo, Simon and friends ventured to the local watering holes... of course less and less is remembered until they wake up in the hotel room in the morning – Massive night. In the morning Penna2 called a taxi to take him back into town to retrieve the car. As he stepped out of the hotel room he noticed that in fact the car was parked at the hotel – How did this Happen? No need to panic he thought as the taxi rolled up and to the amazement of on lookers in he got and off he went??? Apparently too embarrassed to tell the taxi driver that he didn't need him Penna2 cruised the streets of Bendigo before taking the taxi to the local football club pretending to look for a lost jumper. After hiding behind the change rooms for a few minutes he returned to the cab without the lost jumper and returned to the hotel. PRIDE intact of course and about $20 lighter... What is it with the Wright brothers and Taxi fare? This is dedicated to Penna – an inspiration to his family – Good to see him BACK Playing!!!

JUNIOR BULLS

Another couple of WINS for the Juniors this weekend.

U/9 Red just missing out although U/9 White had their second win on the trot.

U/10's are a team to watch and the U/11's have picked up a player or two.

The U/12's had a big win at Chelsea by 13 goals and are second on the ladder.

U13's and 14's are getting there and will be winning soon while the 15's are fresh after the bye and ready for another crack. Go Little Bulls

Junior Trivia Night is on Friday 22nd June, $10 entry and drinks at bar prices. Tables of 8

THE LAST WORD

- Still required HELP at Karingal FC – especially at Home Games. Also Robyn Burke is unable to attend some Wednesday night meals – Please let he know if you can avail yourselves for this – 0432 324 004. Any HELP will be much appreciated... Especially as 5 of the next 7 games are at home. You're the GOOD Robyn still!!!!
- Augustus Gloop is back... that lovable German youngster from Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory made a surprise appearance Saturday night at the clubrooms in the Back to School theme with suspenders and all. Certainly had an impact also...He was upstaged by some other more noteworthy efforts including Peninsula Old Boy Pitty (this was unknown prior to the night) King Gee Stubbies (AKA Chris Reichmann's shorts – Did anyone ever wear these?) and of course what about Michael Burkes outstanding night coming with trackie pants and a top – MASSIVE Effort – Well Done. But the best effort was certainly Timmy Hirst proving time travel was possible, coming exactly like he looked at high school, how his girlfriend even walks in public with him is beyond me...FIX THAT HAIR!
- Best of Luck to Hutchy who was back in Hospital this week for radiotherapy... hopefully this will be last time.
- Mark "Knackers" Behnecke 40th Birthday Party was held last Friday Night with many enjoyable moments, not too mention the amount of great Karingal FC people there!! Only Missing was Bob Dodd and Barrel – maybe they could have car pooled down together? Credit where it's due to Knackers, not many could have their 1st wife there, not there 2nd wife (not divorced yet) but there new girlfriend??? Figure that out. An emotional speech topped the night with the birthday boy holding out the tears but not without Scott HAROLD Frey destroying him personally with verbal insults and any chance of some civility on the night. WOULD LOVE TO SEE THESE PEOPLE MORE OFTEN!!!
- MACCA VAGG Update – Must be really struggling because he sent the same message 3 times on 1 email – Talking about Drunken escapades it seems someone is still the King. I've always thought this guy was the sharing and caring type but apparently he and Hicksy are taking this to NEW Levels, the King is unaware but not anymore... She must be one special girl for 2 weeks in a row for you both – Last Word is now looking to the Hirst / Farrelly combo to TRUMP this effort.

- MY SPACE UPDATE – Lee Gage just won't go away, now he's resorted to removing everything that may have caused him embarrassment... it looks very boring now... but delving a bit deeper reveals it isn't. Some real highlights include the conversation between Gagey and Kirby including the following comment “ Comin over for a drink or what?” and real intellectual gems like Gavin King “ famous famous famous” this is riveting stuff. We press on to the section MY GOAL – a self posted topic that sprouts “anyone that has seen me play football knows I'm a hack n s@%t..... but today I kicked goal of the day so I have been told from the boundary loved it still chubed up” Posted at 1:49 a.m. – Great Stuff Gagey – Doesn't matter whether you can play or not mate the world still needs personalities. Keep it up.
- I'll make this simple – Racism is UNACCEPTABLE in any form... so is tolerance of it and ignorance. END STORY.
- Post game last week at Seaford was a fantastic effort again by our players / supporters to hang around especially those who did when awards or should I say the Justin Peckett show began... Pecko was given an enormous rap for his efforts in returning to local footy ... hear hear... I believe he just knows when to get off the sinking ship - Saints STRUGGLING big time on and now off the ground especially with the drive from the Brighton Houses to Cranbourne Training looming!!!
- Club 44 Response has been fantastic with many new and returning members making sure the Club will be a success this year and for many years to come. There is still room to jump on (especially seeing there will be no NEED this year to bring the Richmond bandwagon out) and enjoy the benefits. See Pup or Wally or duck in at ½ time of the seniors to join up.
- Late breaking NEWS... Saints in more trouble as it's discovered no one is looking after the PENSKEY file... Also Saint Supporters Oz and Burnsy have both been caught out fantasizing over Ray's wife Debra in Everybody loves Raymond – a reputed family show that they've NOW soured – How low will they go?
- As Madonna sang “Holiday... oh yeah oh yeah ... Celebrate... come on let's Celebrate” – UNLESS your David Measham of course who copped 1 week and was sent off for 15 minutes after a goal umpire made a report from approx. 100 metres away. Text book effort, speaking to the Seaford player post game who said it missed. How come the Field umpires who were both within 20 metres didn't make the report? Last week in the 2nds when a boundary made a report the player wasn't sent off because the field umpire didn't witness the event? Confused yet – Speak to Wisha – he'll be happy to explain it!!!
- Congratulations to Randall & Julie Pearson who this week added a boy to the family of 2 little girls, named Luke... The Longley's not far away or the Dooleys, Skinners, Sullivans and McLeods. Well done also to Uncle Tug whose sister had a little boy this week had named Samuel...

- THE BALL IS IN 2 WEEKS, $5,000 Draw Tickets (July 21 @ KFC) are now out and Matt Jakobi has now officially been crowned the new TRANS GENDER KING of Karingal FC. His last outing passed Graham French's previous record of 11 times dressed up as a woman at a Club Function for no real reason – Well Done Jacko – a water ski career now awaits you.
