ROUND 9

Last week was an up and down effort – Firstly, THANK YOU to Robyn Burke for involving us in the Calling to Arms project – Lots of $$$ raised – Well done to all who donated... The day started poorly for the under 18s and only in the last did the hard running and working team we know show up – too little too late – an opportunity was there as shown but we must grab it... The reserves played an undefeated team and were added to the scalps – with a side full of 1st team experience it was a great let down as scoring shots were 15 to 12 for us... time to knuckle down and cement our spot in the 4 starting this week... The Seniors have now won 3 in a row and life seems somewhat rosier to all – great efforts across the board with some confidence slowly building... Muscle Foot the hero (much loved by the Bulls Crowd) with LVR, Rocky Scott and the Bad Timmy all playing well. Also Jamie from Big Brothers son got into the best as well – Well Done Troy. On a serious note if Karingal FC is guilty of anything, its getting ahead of ourselves – Thinking this week will be easy could be a massive error in judgment – We MUST do the Business this Sunday at Frankston Park versus the Pines. $5,000 draw tickets are going quick, please snap one up and GO BULLS!!!

Coaches Report

A hard fought win against a side that was 2 games clear of us in 4th position. I think it shows great character to grind out a win against a quality and disciplined side after we had consecutive run away wins. Our ability to play as a team and not just rely on a couple of individuals got us over the line. There were some fantastic individual efforts however these can only come about with the support of team mates. One area I think we can improve is our goal kicking. Still too many relative easy shots are being missed which keeps the opposition in the game. 20 goals 6 reads much better than 14.12. It's all part of having that 'Killer Instinct'. When you have some self belief, confidence and are able to back it up with solid effort & performances then you can really start to gather momentum. This is the tough part of the year and if we can maintain our attitude and lift our effort even more then we give ourselves every opportunity to have a significant impact in the second half of the year. This Sunday's game is our biggest game of the year. Anything less than our absolute best effort is unacceptable. We must HUNT and DESTROY the Pythons. Where single mindedness and efficiency meet, ruthlessness is the result – That's Killer Instinct. Pecko.

Coaches Report

Well done to the one's last week, a well deserved win. Can't say the same for the two's unfortunately. We were playing the top team and I was pretty confident going into the game that we could take the points. We started well, the game was in the balance all day, but in the end we did not put on enough scoreboard pressure (we had more scoring shots but could not convert) and we were simply not hard enough at the ball. They hit us pretty hard from the start and we were not able to come to the party. This week against Pines lets put them away early and get some confidence back into our game. A few players earning a chance this week so make sure you're switched on and take your opportunity. Pitty

3rds – 8th Position

Karingal 3. 9 27

Bon Beach 14. 12 96

Goals: R Bartlett – Quinn, B Evans, And S Pegler.

Best: J McCoy, J Martinson, A Guy, N Mair, G Goodall.

Coaches Report

How quickly the bubble bursts. Very disappointing day in the unders, concerns were raised when the boys ran out discussing how another win was on the way before the ball had even bounced. Consequently we went into 1/4 time 7 goals down and never recovered. I was very disappointed to say the least about observing our cock sureness after only beating the bottom two sides. As the season reaches the half way mark I can only hope our boys learn from these types of mistakes and we move forward. This week Pines at Frankston with the inclusion of Tim Smith back from the seniors, looking forward to the injection of pace out wide and for the boys to bounce back leading into the following 5 weeks of again playing the top five sides consecutively. SOCIAL REPORT – by the ROVING BULL

A fairly quiet week in the social world last week so just a few notes from Roving Bull. We have now hit the half way mark of this shortened season and it seems that not a single thing has been done about this year's footy trip. This years self appointed trip organizer – Tim 'Worst Trip' Hirst has now piled the pressure on himself to deliver a decent trip. He has a lot to live up to after great trip organizers of the past such as Troy 'Pit Dog' Callahan, Matt 'Jacko' Jakobi and Andrew 'Ozzie' Osborne have delivered the goods. One saving grace for 'Worst Trip' Hirst is that it will not take much to topple the efforts of Ralph 'Home made Lunch' Hallal of 2004. Ralph organized possibly the worst trip ever known to football.....the trip consisted of 8 blokes (of which only 3 drank), 6 shopping expeditions, 2 early nights, 4 movies from blockbuster and a romantic dinner shared by Layne 'Cuddles' Quinn and Todd Anderson! I'll give you a tip Hirsty....get us to Carrum Downs Caravan Park for 4 days and you will have beaten Ralph's trip!! Head up Ralphy! In other news, with the mighty Bulls playing on Sunday at Frankston the lads will be at the RSL tonight after training for a feed and maybe a couple of frothies. Apparently Pecko had to ask permission from Pitty to allow the seniors to join the two's usual Friday night training session at the rissole! Pitty replied reluctantly, "Yeah I suppose you's can come to my RSL, just don't go making a habit of it..." Thanks Pitty!! Roving Bull.

PENNISM

An irate Penna last week defended himself against allegations of the beach comments – Asking who made that up? I can't remember saying that!! Unfortunately it had already gone to print... This week is an opportunity to reflect back on how the Penna legend came to be. (Pines this week as opponents adds that extra spice) Back in Season 2000 Penna, after playing in his 2nd Senior Premiership at Karingal decided the grass might be a bit greener on the other side and ventured off to play at the Pines. Immediately creating interest for the games when he would play... unfortunately Penna got injured and missed the 1st battle – a resounding Pines victory at Eric Bell. The return bout would go into the history books of the Bulls. The battle developed at Ballam Park with now under 18 coach manning a cunning Penna in the Pines forward line... The pythons had got out to about a 2 goal lead when the ball went forward, Penna left his man in his wake using his brute strength as he lunged onto a wayward footy, ran around onto his left and dribbled through a text book goal... maybe he would have the last laugh... THEN as the ball was dribbling through Penna extended both arms and began to do an aeroplane across the ground changing direction and showing ALL that he was quite happy with himself – the BULLS were infuriated by this show ... Half time came with the Bulls trailing by 3 ½ goals but the young BULLS had been galvanized by the events of late into the quarter. Making every post a winner the BULLS kicked 13 goals to 1 in the 3rd quarter to take an unassailable lead and to enjoy a what seemed an improbable VICTORY before ½ time. Burke and Oz (when he was skinny!!!) kicked 4 goals each in the 3rd term as 17 year olds... When the final siren sounded Club Captain Jamie Thomas gave the crowd a new rendition of the aeroplane from one end to the other and all BULLS fans rejoiced this event with much delight. Proving no matter what PENNA does he is always putting Karingal FC first – Thank you PENNA!!!

JUNIOR BULLS

Results - A pretty good week for the young uns' with 2 ½ wins in round 7
U/9W had a draw this week and the coach has identified one AFL certainty, but, who wants to get ahead of themselves anyway?

U/9R went down by a couple of goals and I saw the best front on smother/ charge down I have ever seen, certainly in juniors.

Young Jordan Marshall showed a lot more courage than most adults I've seen play.

U/10s had another close one and just can't seem to take the game when it is there to be had but it will come.

U/11s played on Friday night at Mordialloc and although struggled against good opposition, had a crack again.

U/12s played the 2nd placed side and won by 4 goals to go back into the four. The opposition managed 5 goals and a player we loaned them in the 1st qtr kicked 2 of them.

U/13s made it 2 in a row and got home by 3 pts. After having the game pinched from them 3 weeks ago revenge was sweet and this was a great come from behind win.

U14s started well but went to sleep in the 2nd and 3rd before going down by 50 odd pts. The improvement is there, it's happening, we can see it guys just hang in there.

The 15s again ran out of legs and after dominating the 3rd qtr, faded badly in the last. DJ, JM & Side Show Bob all in good form again and with Big "Jim Bob" Cassidy back this week after the umpire's holiday, LOOK OUT PINES.

TRIVIA NIGHT was sensational, thanks to everyone who attended and supported the club, especially to Goog and Ag who represented the senior club and were in fine form, well lets just say.....BANG ! Go you good things...Go Little Bulls.

THE LAST WORD

- Oh when the Saints, go marching in, oh when the saints go marching in... etc... Etc... Well didn't the boys well and truly deliver for Harvs 350th game – Yes Last word gives credit where due – it was a monster win and if the eagles had hit the front they were home but the Saints stuck thick and Del Santo kicked the match winner in the last – a beauty. To all long suffering Saints fans out there – Congratulations. Pies did a great job over the Swans, and the Tigers finally broke the Duck – Pretty Sure all Carlton supporters call that the unwanted Trifecta – Bombers still choked and missed the quaddie of pain for Blues fans... Highlights of comments received – M Burke still thinks Carlton's Loss provided more joy than Tigers Win, poor pathetic Tankers – oops Tigers. Gage / Weare – last seen headed to Fairway Tattoo Parlour, picking up moose, oz, Jacko and tugga on the way – sorry boys its only round 12 – who knows when you can finally add to the 2004 and 1996 Night Cup tattoos... Wally has been sitting out the front of the parlour for 3 weeks wondering where it's gone...
- A new term being bandied around Karingal FC when one is doing something quite silly – to Rowey oneself – quite comical. Rowey seems to have a few fans on Argy Bargy who keep interrupting serious subjects with loving words for the Big Fella... Someone who has absolutely Rowey'd himself last week was Lee Gage (yes Last Words favourite) after missing out on selection last week, plus turning 21 the young bull really let himself go on a bender... Highlight of course being caught doing no. 2 whilst sitting down on a urinal, thank you to Kirby for the emailed pictured. Something only a father could be PROUD of!!!
- Sisterly Protection reared its ugly head at the Ball and was missed by the Last Word... a former club captain with major connections was caught talking up to his sisters date at the ball about the virtues of his sister. The 5' 8' midget has an amazing right hook according to himself but whether or not he has the reach to get the strapping 6' 6 giant of the under 18s would be another Question... although this all mounted to a waste of time as are most of his conversations, whilst this was going on Wisha's favourite man was mowing the lawns nicely in the background... What the hell is going on there?
- Please, please, please, SOMEONE out there must know someone who can look after the Bulls website, it just needs to be updated and some new information added... Please return email or contact Wally if you know of anyone with the computing skills to finish this task...karingalfc.com

- Frankston nightlife offers everything – This week a Ben Cousins look a like was spotted –yes he was out partying also – but the V neck and nothing underneath look inspired the recently returned small man to Karingal – what more could he want... some Girls possibly? Looks like a sexy pre season ahead at the Island!!!
- The Langwarrin Hotel last week after the Post game antics at the Bull pit was where 3 Club stalwarts decided to venture out for a few late ones... Many a yarn was spun but somehow the topic with the elder bar maid included veered towards the use of chicken fillets by today's younger women and the possible need for them? Not to be out done the barmaid quickly whipped out and revealed that she was not in fact wearing them and that her breasts were ALL her own... Lets just say that the Karingal Fc bar man was suitable lost for words but has been spotted back at the Langwarrin Hotel every night this week ordering Chicken Snitzel in the hope of a rerun...Sorry to put a NAIL in the coffin but it wont be happening...
- Another LAST WORD favourite in Cameron Hicks has an interesting story to tell about an offer he couldn't refuse last Saturday night from another man... Make sure you ask him about it... Unfortunately he BLEW his opportunity!!!
- A couple of minor battles last week with a trio of brothers making some waves... Jamie would be very proud of them... seems the youngest took on and won a see sawing battle against a Pest Controller... this was followed by the 2 older brothers trying to exert their influence against the youngest without much success.. It seems the 2 older brothers then continued this alone until the younger one was the victor – Confused yet? Just ask Hoady he knows what I mean...
- The tide has turned and last weeks crowd was a pleasure at the BULL PIT... Full of Voice and Spirit with some old time favourites back and wasn't it great to see... 2 Highlights spring to mind. Firstly the great Tim Elliott Fan Club led by Moose Haley aka Rod Stewart – can anyone confirm he actually has a girlfriend, remembering he went with Timmy to Thailand!!! – The great man didn't let them down delivering 5 magnificent goals and the fan Club responded in Kind...But they weren't finished...The Senior Club Runner out to deliver a message was called back promptly by the bench for a re issue – This was greeted with massive Bronx cheers and red faced runner. Post game he seemed ok though but it's always hard to tell with calves that swollen and covered in ice, unfortunately no players seem to be getting any attention at all...

- Effie Rangi Clark and all of the canteen staff need to be congratulated for their work this year in the canteen – Well Done Guys, Also Crazy Groves Burgers, a delight in the morning and all the people who make the home games a pleasure to attend...Included in attendees were JB and son decked out nicely in the Bulls Jumpers!!!
- Apparently a bad knee can adversely effect your footy tipping... Well that's the word coming out of Blue Gum Clothing this year as the el supremo slumps lower than a Gary Ablett date in the city – GUILTY!!! If you don't run the competition you can't WIN the competition. The Cats are % and 1 game clear – this is going to be sweet later on!!!
- Alan Didak has been named as possible suspect in a crime again with many details being withheld... Players simply can't go to nightclubs anymore... Didak is sure to get off as all evidence points to a team mate. Didak is known as a straight shooter so not much chance he would have missed with a shot gun from 20 yards – The finger now being pointed at Anthony Rocca or Travis Cloke both known for horrible inaccuracies.
- Congratulations out this week to Matt Longley and family on the arrival of a little girl – More details to follow...
- What does this years Trip Away Organizer and the Club notes writer Unpredictabull have in common? The identity of both is a complete mystery to all at the Club... Ouch!!! Ralph is over the moon about the possibility of handing the title of worst ever trip organizer over...One title he doesn't have to worry about is longest running Musical love affair which Unpredictabull tells me is still the Senior Coach and Darryl Braithwaite!!! Howzat!
- This week sees the Bulls return to Frankston Park and also the return of the Club Captain, with 3 in a row, the reserves to bounce back hard from last weeks defeat and the unders needing to assert some authority it bodes for a massive Sunday, remember next week is Sponsors Day / Club 44 Luncheon and
