Club Cleanliness/Presentation

We ask all families to remember that the Karingal Football Club is a shared junior and senior facility. With this in mind it is important that all members show respect for facilities and wherever possible offer assistance to improve presentation, including sweeping outside, maintaining change and toilet facilities, using rubbish bins etc. It is also asked that we show respect to the equipment provided, the recent addition of new tables and chairs hopefully need to last a couple of seasons, so please remember that the tables were not made for sitting on and that the chairs need to stay in one piece! :)

We are always appreciative of any small amount of help that families can offer our club and recognize that there are many people that contribute great amounts of hours to getting this VOLUNTEER organization up and running. We would also love to see more people offer assistance with things such as team tasks, canteen serving or food preparation, dinner organization on a Sunday night and generally maintaining facilities. Please see a committee member who can give you ideas on where you can be of help!

YCW 18. 5 113

Goals: David Hirst , Michael Burke 2, Luke Forsyth 3 , Robbie Clements 1, Scotty Phillips 1

Best: Robbie Clements, Michael Burke

Coaches Report:

We did not play well, our decision making at times was very poor and our disposal was terrible. We are playing without self belief, confidence and a real hunger to give everything we have got. I would like to acknowledge the efforts of Rob Clements & Luke Adams who have both over the last 2 weeks played for their school on the Friday and then fronted up to play with us on the Saturday. It is a great effort as I know both boys have been feeling the pinch but still have had an impact for us. When you have had a poor year it is hard to play out the season with the same enthusiasm and intensity you came into the season with however we still have 4 games to go. Three of the four are against the top 3 sides on the ladder starting with Mt Eliza tomorrow. We need to play the year out – look to inflict some damage on our opposition both physically and mentally as they head into this year's final series. This presents as a wonderful challenge for our young team on our home ground against the best team in the competition. My dad always used to say, "If you're falling off a cliff, you may as well try to fly. You have nothing to lose." Captain John Sheridan, Babylon 5 - Pecko

FOR ALL BULLS SUPPORTERS in Season 2008... Powered by Optus

You've Been BURNS'd(5k Follow up)

- Wally vacuuming the clubrooms totally by himself (Hog's Breath material that one) You got IT Wally after telling everyone all night that you deserved it you finally got it – Highlight was how at another function this year you stood blind bagging sober people trying to clean up but when the shoe fits...Also Nails must have told everyone in the world “ Geez Wally not really happy when he's sober, really funny when he told it to Wally unbeknown to Nails – Great Team work all round Guys.
- The Munchkin (“we represent the lollipop guild, the lollipop guild...etc etc”) who is often seen serving beer or burgers & locking himself in the toilets outside quite late on Saturday night – not a bad effort considering he needed to lock the padlock from the inside!
- Colin “Take me to Tugga's” Hoad's woeful attempt at the Moon Walk. It looked like a drunken big green alien from The Simpsons with legs and drool everywhere! The worst part was that his feet didn't move and know there's a big stain from carpet burn. Seemed like a good idea at the time though Col... you looked every bit like Michael Jackson!!!
- Digger's song selection late in the night – really, does anyone else still listen to “Electric Dreams”? Debbie Hooper and the girls loved it.
- Di Weare's attempt to exit the back seat of a 4WD gracefully at 2am – was this her trying desperately to hide the Red G-Banger? Enough Said.
- The disappointment of Ryan and Dekka at being told they couldn't 4WD over the pile of sand beside the oval - was short lived when Dex offered to get naked as payment for the 'Taxi Service' to.....you guessed it.....Tugga's! No comments needed.
- AFL – How devastating for Saints supporters that I have to fill in this week for Moose. 1966 – that's it – move on. Blues Supporter rejoice – just rejoice. Because no Saints supporters can ever bag the Blues about the Cain Ackland fiasco when Michael Gardener is on 2 years leave from Perth pretending to be a footballer. 8 kicks 7 clangers – not even Chris Hay could turn that into a positive. Let's be honest the Blues, Bombers & Tigers on their way up – the rest going down.

- Best Wishes to James Haley's girlfriend and family, Jess lost her mother this week after battling cancer. Thoughts are with all.
- It's been a tough year – for ALL – so let's make sure we finish off strong as we must let all prospective Club Persons for 2009 and on know our fighting qualities – GO BULLS!!!
